Farmers May Get Double Federal Benefits—Processing Taxes Abandoned—Clements Quits as Townsend Plan Secretary.

The bill, which was introduced by Representative Clements, was passed by a vote of 241 to 171. The bill would also abolish the processing tax on agricultural products, which has been a major source of revenue for the federal government since the passage of the Townsend Plan. The exodus to Bermuda reminded a man named Ben Bolt of a trip he had taken years ago to Bermuda. The ship was to sail at midnight, and after an evening of pleasant distractions in New York they went on board. Before turning in they had several rounds of drinks in the ship's bar. An accident of some kind delayed the sailing and the next morning when Mr. Bolt's companion awoke he looked out the port window and saw the New York docks. He swore a mighty oath and clapped his hand to his brow.
